

What I need to do to get there:

I need to continue studying and also practice for the SAT.

I need to continue to demonstrate good leadership skills and learn more of the “hidden social cues” that I sometimes have trouble picking up. By doing this I will graduate and also be ready for college.

I need to decide on my post-secondary college options.

